Saturday, July 16, Madonna del Carmine: procession of the Capitulars around the General House, bringing a copy of the image of the Immacolata donated by Pope Pius IX to Father Monti on July 15, 1877.

THE WORLD IN A CLASSROOM. The reports from the Jurisdictions offered the Capitulars a very rich picture of the presence and life of the Congregation in the world. The General Chapter represents an observatory - perhaps large but very representative - of the Church's action "by the peoples": four hundred religious of different nationalities engaged in hundreds of activities at the service of peoples, from schools to homes for the elderly, from centers for the disabled to parishes, from hospitals to communities for minors. They are involved and thousands of people in the most diverse functions: collaborators, volunteers, employees, up to those who participate with a special charismatic sharing. For the Capitulars all this is perceived as a miracle, born from the evangelical intuition of the carpenter of Bovisio Masciago, Luigi Monti. These "works" have continued their mission even in the pandemic, although they face heavy challenges.

FATHER MONTI IN FRENCH. At last! On the occasion of the Chapter, two important volumes on the Founder were published. We are talking about the translation into French of the substantial biographical work written by Fr. Erasmo Perniola over forty years ago. The translation work (about a thousand pages) was edited by two African religious, Emmanuel Mvomo and Appolinaire Anguissa.
